

CEO Spotlight

Michael W. Myhre

High resolution photo available online

Michael W. Myhre is the Chief Executive Officer for the Florida SBDC. In this role, Myhre leads the statewide network of more than 40 offices and nearly 250 employees, providing strategic vision and oversight in the continued success of Florida's largest provider of hands-on business assistance for small and medium-sized businesses.

Myhre holds more than 25 years of economic and business development experience, dedicating his career to ensuring success for entrepreneurs and small business owners. He joined the Florida SBDC Network in January 2011, and has served as CEO since March 2013.

Prior to his tenure with the Florida SBDC Network, Myhre held the position of Executive Director for the Office of Entrepreneurship and Small Business Development for the State of Minnesota. In this position, Myhre provided oversight of Minnesota's leading office of entrepreneurial and small business policy development and support services, including direction of the Minnesota SBDC Network.

The Florida SBDC Network is a statewide partnership program nationally accredited by the Association of America's SBDCs and funded in part by the U.S. SBA, DLA, State of Florida, and other private and public partners, with UWF serving as the network's headquarters. Florida SBDC services are extended to the public on a nondiscriminatory basis. Language assistance services are available for individuals with limited English proficiency.

State Designated as Florida's Principal Provider of Business Assistance [Fla. Stat. § 288.001]

Helping Businesses Grow & Succeed

 FloridaSBDC.org

